

JFB1 Meter Box

The enclosure molded by glass fiber reinforced polyester . The materials used self-extinguishing at 960°C and resistant to heat above 125°C and ultraviolet radiation. It can be equipped with a lift, a meter reading light.

The Seer of the meter reading will be made of transparent, non-corrosive polycarbonate and Opening from the outside. The mechanical protection index is IK 10.For protection against solids and liquids, the protection index to be associated with these boxes will be IP53.

The enclosure are intended to receive electronic meters with prepayment single-phase and three-phase . They shall be able to receive all necessary equipment for counting and shall have the following characteristics:

Performance technical	Characters
Material	glass fiber reinforced polyester
Opening / Closing	A triangle sealed
Connecting	With blow moulding press,2 inputs/outputs sections 70 mm ²
Capacity	Suitable to the most appropriate equipment included; the grip on the pole must be as small as possible to avoid tearing.
Protection index	IP53
Accessories	for fixing the meters; the circuit breaker ; the fuses
Fixation	3 screws for fixing meter 2 screws for fixing circuit breaker Or a kit mounting plate
Enclosure Dimension	492*164*197mm

